V-E DAY COMMEMORATION Friday, May 8, 2015

Harry S. Truman Library and Museum | Programs included with Museum Admission; Members and Veterans Admitted Free

President Truman's 131st birthday also is the 70th anniversary of V-E Day. We'll honor the Allied victory with a Veterans Appreciation Ceremony, Presidential Wreath Laying, live military band and a keynote address by WWII Brig. Gen. Bob LeBlanc, who served with General Patton. Hundreds of veterans will enjoy VIP hospitality on this very special day. In addition, Museum visitors will have the rare opportunity to view the original German Surrender Document, signed May 7, 1945.

- 9 a.m. President's Wreath Laying Ceremony (Truman Courtyard)
- 9:30 a.m. American Legion Wreath Laying Ceremony (Truman Courtyard)
- 10:30 a.m. V-E Day Keynote Address Featuring Maj. General Karen LeDoux and WWII Brig. General Bob LeBlanc (Auditorium)
- 11:30 a.m. Catered Lunch for Veterans (Event Tent)

“THEY HAVE EARNED OUR UNDYING GRATITUDE.”
