FREE 1945 FILM SERIES 2 p.m.

Every second Sunday, May through September, the Truman Library will present a notable WWII-era film at 2 p.m. Admission to the viewing is free.

- May 10: Story of G.I. Joe
- June 14: The Bells of St. Mary's
- July 12: Anchors Aweigh
- Aug 9: They Were Expendable
- Sept 13: Weekend at the Waldorf

**WHDC – The public is invited to participate in free and open sessions in the Truman Library's acclaimed history simulator, The White House Decision Center. Set in a recreated West Wing, participants take on the roles of President Truman and his advisors to review top-secret and formerly classified documents from 1945. How will the war with Japan end? You decide!*
